

Precincts in Parramatta

→ Parramatta Park

This popular park provides picnic areas, cycling paths and scenic walking tracks past woodland and landscaped areas around the River.

→ City Centre

The heart of the city offers a diverse range of shopping, entertainment and dining options from cafés and restaurants to bars and hotels.

→ River Foreshore

The foreshore provides a relaxing space away from the busy city centre and annually hosts Parramatta's signature event Riverbeats.

→ Church Street North

Set around Prince Alfred Park are the Parramatta Heritage Centre and Riverside Theatres offering exhibitions and performances.

→ Harris Park

Harris Park has evolved into a multicultural hub hosting an array of restaurants and retail from Indian cuisine to Lebanese sweets.

Walking Routes

🚶 Riverside Walk (C2)

The river foreshore features one of the cultural highlights of the city: The Riverside Walk by Aboriginal artist Jamie Eastwood (2000). This artwork tells the history of the river and its people from an Aboriginal perspective.

🚶 Harris Park Heritage Walk (F3)

As the agricultural heart of the new colony, Harris Park played an important role in the development of Parramatta. This walk takes in some of the earliest colonial buildings in the nation telling the stories of its pioneers.

🚶 Park Walk (B3)

Parramatta Park is one of the city's nationally significant heritage sites for Indigenous and colonial stories. The Park Walk explores the park's natural and heritage assets.
